

Why study in Perth?

The capital of Western Australia, Perth is a vibrant, welcoming and diverse city located in the same time zone as Hong Kong, Singapore, Beijing and Kuala Lumpur. With an excellent standard of living, Perth ranks among the world's most liveable cities and enjoys more hours of sunshine than any other Australian capital city. Perth offers all the qualities and amenities of an international city in an idyllic, laid-back setting, giving you access to beaches, national parks, restaurants, entertainment, sporting events, shopping precincts, and much more.

Cottesloe Beach—one of Perth's most popular beaches

Rottnest Island—a short ferry ride away

Kings Park—popular tourist attraction

Off campus	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a range of options available in surrounding suburbs • rental prices vary depending on location and type of accommodation.

STUDY ABROAD AND STUDENT EXCHANGE KEY SEMESTER DATES

2016	Semester 2 (Fall)
Housing move in*	18 July
Recommended arrival date ^a	20 or 21 July
University Orientation Week ("O-Week")	25 to 29 July
Start day (first day of classes)	1 August
Non-teaching week #1	29 August to 2 September
Non-teaching week #2	26 to 30 September
Final exam dates	14 to 25 November
First day to leave ^o	27 November
Housing contract end date*	5 December

Note

* This is the first date of the semester Curtin Housing contract. Students signing a Curtin Housing contract will start paying for their Curtin Housing on this day regardless of the day they arrive. Students can arrange to arrive earlier than their Curtin Housing begins and pay extra pro-rata.

^a Curtin Study Abroad recommends this arrival date and hopes the majority of students arrive on this date. We believe that if students arrive too early without any activities planned and without other new students arriving they may get homesick. Students can arrive on the date which suits them best, but they must arrive at least by the Sunday before the start of University Orientation Week.

^o Students should not schedule their return flight before this date as they may have an exam as late as the last exam date for the semester.

*As per their housing contract, students will have to pay for Curtin Housing up to this date, regardless of when they leave. Students can arrange to stay after this date, but will be charged pro-rata for each extra day they stay.
